VOLUNTEER CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

During the course of your volunteering activity, you may have access to see or hear information of a confidential nature. You are expected to use your discretion and maintain confidentiality about information relating to all aspects of your volunteering activity.

However, if information you have been party to raises a concern you are at liberty to share this information with the Organiser/Chairman.

Disclosures of information relating to clients, members of staff, other volunteers or that which you acquire during the course of your volunteering activity may only be disclosed elsewhere with the agreement of the Organiser or Chairman or unless required by law.

You are reminded that a breach of confidentiality may result in your volunteering role being terminated.

I agree to uphold this commitment to confidentiality both whilst I am volunteering at Didcot Volunteer Centre and elsewhere.
